9 Attorney may release you from the supervision of the Program at any time. The 10 United States Attorney may, at any time within the period of your supervision, 11 initiate prosecution for this offense should you violate the conditions of this 12 Program and will furnish you with notice specifying the conditions of your 13 Program, which you have violated.

14 If, upon completion of your Program, a Pre-Trial Diversion Report is 19 Neither this Agreement nor any other document filed with the United States

25 Jarin J. Storrs asserts and certifies that she is aware of the fact that the Sixth 26 Amendment to the Constitution of the United States provides that in all criminal 27 prosecutions the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial. She is 28 also aware that Rule 48(b) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure provides that the Court may dismiss an indictment, information, or complaint for unnecessary delay in presenting a charge to the Grand Jury, filing an information or in bringing a defendant to trial. She hereby requests that the United States Attorney for the Eastern District of Washington defer any prosecution of her for violation of 18 U.S.C. § 641 for a period of 12 months, and to induce him to defer such prosecution, she agrees and consents that any delay from the date of this agreement to the date of the initiation of the prosecution, as provided for in the terms expressed herein, shall be deemed to be a necessary delay at her request and she waives any defense to such prosecution on the ground that such delay operated to deny her rights under Rule 48(b) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and the Sixth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States to a speedy trial or to bar the prosecution by reason of the running of the statute of limitations for a period of 12 months, which is the period of this agreement.

I hereby state that the above has been read by me. I understand the conditions of my Pre-Trial Diversion Program and agree that I will comply with them.
